

A FULL LINE OF SEEDS

Grass Seed, Clover, Alsike, Millet, Hungarian. Canada Peas, Seed Corn, Barley and Fancy Oats.

Call and get prices.

TOWER & WEBSTER,
BARTON, VERMONT.

Bring us your job work, satisfaction guaranteed and prices the lowest.

ORLEANS COUNTY MONITOR,

BARTON,

VERMONT

SHIRT WAIST PATTERNS

To Close at 87c Each
Former prices, $1.00, $1.25, $1.37.

We have a line of Stationery that will surely suit.

Prices from 10c to 50c per box.

A new lot of Gents' undressed Kid Gloves at 50c a pair.

Remember we carry the "Urban" Shoe, one of the best shoes made. Everything in Fishing Tackle from a 10c cane pole to a $4.00 steel rod.

J. G. KING & SON
Glover, Vermont

YOUR EYESIGHT

Bring us your troubles.

We Fit and Prescribe Glasses for All Errors of Refraction.

Guaranteed satisfaction.

FREDERICK M. ALLCHURCH,

Scientific Optician,

BARTON LANDING,

VERMONT

Watch Need Cleaning?

No watch will tell correct time if it isn't cleaned and overhauled occasionally; if your watch hasn't been cleaned for a year it's pretty certain that it needs attention. With expert workmen, best materials and all facilities for fine watch work, we promise entire satisfaction in the matter of cleaning or repairing. We loan you a watch meanwhile.

F. M. ALLCHURCH,

Watchmaker and Jeweler

Optician and Engraver

Barton Landing, Vt.

LOCAL NEWS.

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE

J. B. Moody has gone to Lyndonville to work in the car shops of the Boston & Maine railroad.

Thirty thousand lake trout were received from the United States fish hatchery on Thursday and placed in Echo pond.

John Buck starts the road machine today on the much needed repairs. Reports say the roads were never in worse condition.

Hon. Porter H. Dale spoke at the church yesterday, and it is expected that Rev. A. E. Russell will be here to supply the pulpit for the next two weeks.

Ed. Crow of this place and Miss Grace Curtis of Island Pond were married at the home of the bride in the presence of near relatives May 16th, by Rev. C. D. Lane. They are away on a short trip to Canada, and upon their return will reside here. Their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes for their future happiness and prosperity.

WEST CHARLESTON.

Veda Cook is on the sick list.

Mrs. Waldron is on the sick list at J. B. Holton's.

Mrs. Ramsdale has gone to her home in Groveton.

Maurice Pickel and Arthur Dequette are at work at West Derby.

Mr. Cutting and Charles Niles are at work at Derby Center.

Len Wilson has rented the Andrew Wilson farm and moved there.

Mrs. Hastings and children have returned to their home in New York city.

Dr. Gatchell has completed the repairs on his house and is now painting the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Rouse were recently called to Mr. Rouse's home by the death of his mother.

Phil Miles has bought the farm known as the Waterman place and moved to the same.

Mrs. Steadford is home from Morgan where she has been caring for Mrs. George Twombly.

Mrs. Elmer Colby, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Foss, has returned to her home in Woodstock.

Kimball Clifford is back in his home after spending a few weeks with friends in Derby and Holland.

Mrs. Montgomery of Groveton was in town last week and moved her household goods to her home there.

A. W. Lyon is repairing his house on the Island and will spend a few months there this summer. Henry Lafoe is doing the work.

The Congregational Christian Endeavor prayer meeting will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Subject, "Lessons from the Lives of Elijah and John the Baptist." Leader, Mr. Webster.

The teachers and pupils of the graded school are preparing very interesting pre-Memorial exercises to be held at the academy hall on Tuesday, May 29. These exercises will consist of recitations, songs, drills, pantomime and dialogue. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend Decoration day services at the Congregational church May 30 at one o'clock. To those wishing to come in the forenoon and bring food tables and coffee will be furnished. Let each come prepared to feed someone beside himself. Rev. J. W. Burgin will deliver the address.

COVENTRY.

N. P. Labell is ill with the mumps.

Wilber Scott, who has been quite ill, is recovering health.

Mrs. Ira Wheelock is home from the Hanover hospital and is improving.

Mrs. Charles Tucker has gone to Greensboro Bend to see her mother, who is very ill.

Rev. Josiah Poston of Irasburg and Rev. A. S. Bole preached in exchange last Sunday.

The Irasburg and Coventry baseball teams played here last Saturday. The Coventry team defeated the Irasburg eight to five.

Next Sunday morning there will be a union service in the Congregational church. Rev. A. S. Bole will preach the Memorial sermon.

Memorial day will be observed Tuesday, May 29. At one o'clock p. m. Rev. O. E. Aiken will deliver an address in the Congregational church. The band will furnish music. Baxter Post, G. A. R., will be present.

Mrs. Moore of Sugar Hill, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howland of Montpelier, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stevens of Derby, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Stevens of Barton Landing, Luke Lovering of Derby and Henry and Ned Blanchard of Newport were in town to attend the funeral of Moses Howland.

The remains of Moses Howland were brought here last Monday from St. Johnsbury hospital, where he had been for treatment for the past twelve weeks. Mr. Howland was proprietor of the Coventry House several years ago and has often since been in town spending a few months with his sister, Mrs. Wm. Stevens, at whose residence the funeral was held. Rev. John McDonald of Glover officiating. Mr. Howland had lived in Glover of late. He leaves a wife, one son, Fred Howland of Montpelier, and one sister, Mrs. Stevens, to mourn his loss.

CRAFTSBURY.

Mrs. Fred Corliss returned from Canada Wednesday.

Oscar Bliss moved into the Libbey tenement house last Thursday.

Fred Colburn has rented the Spaulding mill. Immediate possession is given.

Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Allen took possession of the parsonage last Thursday.

Mrs. Siloway from Wolcott is caring for Mrs. Sprague, who is very ill at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Harriman of Barton visited his sister, Mrs. James Anderson, Thursday.

A. E. Calderwood was called to Manchester last Friday to attend the funeral of his sister's husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Ainsworth of Hardwick visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams, last Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Elmer Rockwell has so far recovered from pneumonia that her nurse, Mrs. Bangs, returned to Hardwick last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slicer moved last Thursday from the Spaulding house to the Beattie Taylor house lately purchased by Mr. Slicer.

Mrs. Joseph Hoyt and daughter from the West have been visiting relatives in this town several days. Mrs. Hoyt is quite ill at Robert Anderson's.

NORTH CRAFTSBURY.

Mrs. Edgar Hoyt is quite ill.

Mr. A. Paddock is much better.

Ray Sleeper is able to be out again.

H. R. Mack was here on business a few days of late.

Robert Wylie visited his school friends here last week.

Mrs. Sheehan was called to Derby last week by the illness of James McCaffrey.

The church was well filled to hear the baccalaureate sermon delivered by Rev. C. H. Ronley.

Merton Anderson of Albany has hired the Judge Douglass house and is moving his family there.

The exercises of the Academy during the past week did credit to the teachers and pupils. The only trouble seemed to be that the church was not nearly large enough.

Charles Wheeler, an old resident of Craftsbury, died last Tuesday. He has been a great sufferer all winter and has failed very rapidly of late in spite of good care. The funeral was held at the home Friday.

At the raising of Ed. Gallagher's large barn last Tuesday one of the timbers gave way on which five men were at work and they fell fifteen feet. Glenn Hatch and Mr. Thayer were the only ones injured, the others being badly shaken up. There were about 150 men present.

WEST DERBY.

Tom Hethington is on the sick list.

Mr. M. H. Dodge of Westfield was in town Sunday.

D. R. Puffer spent Sunday with his parents in Richford.

Chas. Stokes of Magog, P. Q. has begun work in the flour shed.

Mrs. H. L. Dodge has returned to her home in Lunenburg.

Mrs. James Elliot spent a few days in Lyndonville the past week.

Wesley Sage of Barnston is visiting his sister, Mrs. George McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Cousins are passing a few days in Knowlton, Que.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Currier of Barton spent Sunday with Dennis Dolloff.

G. R. Gross of Richford is spending a few days with his son Leon and family.

The concert given by Mrs. Emery Friday evening was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Lemuel Stevens of Montreal is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Grey.

Miss Pearl Rollins and Mr. William Neal were united in marriage Tuesday May 15th.

Harry Magoon is boarding at Dennis Dolloff's and working in the C. P. office at Newport.

Chas. Ellis has moved from the Grey tenement on Elm St. to the Shepley house on River St.

Mrs. Lucy Rollins of this place and Mr. Nathan Sawyer of Hardwick were united in marriage on May 15th.

The interior of the Advent church has been papered and painted which has improved the church very much.

GLOVER.

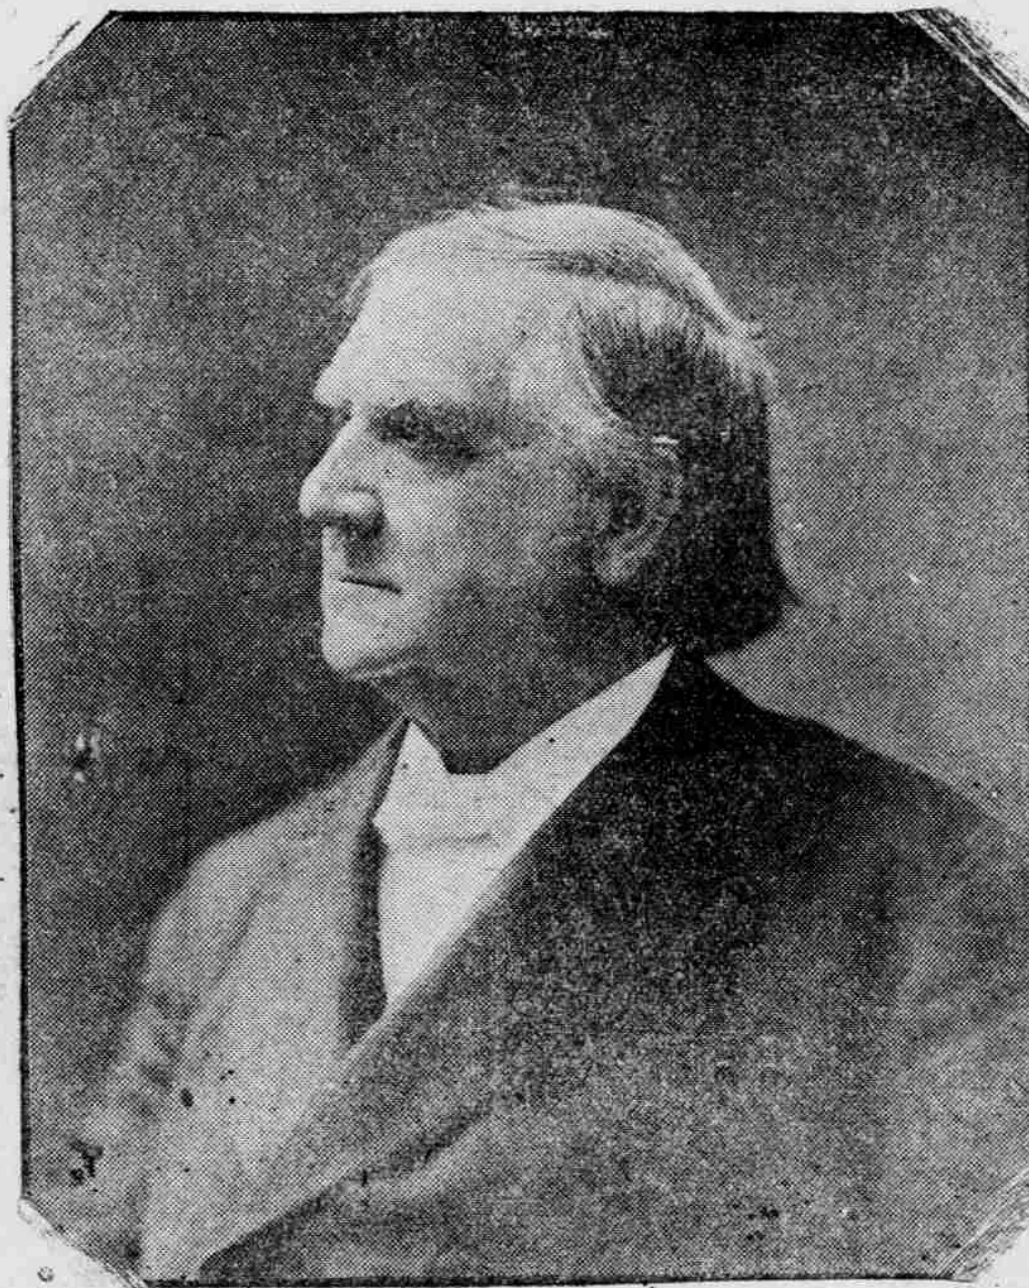

Mr. Corlis began work on the roads May 14th.

Judge Clark is home from his trip to Chicago.

Mrs. V. I. Cameron is teaching at Brownington Center.

Mrs. F. H. Percival visited at St. Johnsbury recently.

REV. SMITH BAKER, D. D.
MEMORIAL DAY ORATOR AT GLOVER.

Rev. Smith Baker will deliver the Memorial Day address for Mason Post at Glover May 30. Dr. Baker is well known by reputation, being pastor of the Williston Congregational church at Portland, Me., and is said to be the best speaker in that denomination in that state.

Flint Post No. 15, G. A. R., will hold their Memorial exercises at North Crafts-bury May 30. They will meet at Academy Hall at 9:30 and accompanied by the Sons of Veterans will march to the cemetery where they will hold their usual exercises. Dinner will be served by the Earnest Workers in the church vestry for 20 cents. At 1:30 the Hon. H. K. Darling of Chelsea will deliver the address. Let everyone come out and help make this a grand memorial. Hear the address and see the Sons of Veterans in their new uniforms.

DERBY.

Mrs. Monteville Daggett is reported ill. Misses Dora and Mae Schoolcraft are very ill with the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Hall of Holland were guests at Leslie Heath's last Friday.

Miss Bertha Comings is able to be out again after an attack of the measles.

Will Kidder and family went to Enosburg Falls last Friday for a short visit.

Miss Bertha Todd spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Bernice Parker at West Derby.

W. H. Salls has improved in health so that he was able to return from Montreal last week.

Wesley Kelley has finished work with his portable steam mill in Holland and is moving it here to resume work.

Next Sunday evening, May 27, at 7:30, Rev. W. A. Warner of Barton will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the class of '06 D. A. in the M. E. church. Wednesday at 8:00 p. m. occurs the student's recital followed by Alumni promenade. Tuesday at 10:20 a. m. occurs the commencement exercises; 1:00 p. m. alumni banquet; 8:00 p. m. commencement concert by the Schubert Quartette and Miss Ethel Munro Batting, reader; Friday at 10:00 a. m., annual meeting of trustees; 11:00 a. m., annual meeting of D. A. A. A.; 2:00 p. m. base ball game, D. A. vs Alumni. Returns from the invitations up to date have been exceptionally good and it is expected and hoped that the attendance will be large.

Rev. Barton of Greensboro and E. C. Kinney visited John Salmon last week.

The best of wishes for a long and happy married life to Mr. and Mrs. Noble Clark.

Grange meeting and dinner Thursday, May 24. Work in third and fourth degrees.

Marion Kirby has finished work at D. D. Gilmour's and is stopping with her parents for awhile.

E. T. Miller of Sutton, salesman for the International Harvester Co., was at F. H. Percival's Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Ruth McDowell of Lyndonville is stopping with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dwinell, for a few days.

On account of sickness, the Sunday memorial service will be held at Glover instead of West Glover, May 27, at 1 o'clock p. m.

The Earnest Workers will hold a social Wednesday afternoon, May 23, at the Methodist church. A cordial invitation extended to all.

The children of the Maples school will give pre-Memorial exercises at the school house Tuesday afternoon, May 29, at 2:00 o'clock. Friends and parents are cordially invited.

On account of the union Memorial services next Sunday, there will be no morning preaching service at the M. E. church Sabbath School and evening services at the usual hours.

Mason Post G. A. R. of Glover has detailed comrades to visit schools as follows: Village, M. Abbott and Comrade Lang; West Glover, G. P. Fisher; Parish, Z. Marsh; Anderson, John Arthur; Mud Island, C. W. Cook; Wright, R. L. Dray; Beach, D. K. Cobb; South Albany; T. Marnock; Center, J. P. Christie.

WEST GLOVER.

Mrs. Will Magoon has returned from her visit in Canada.

B. L. Woodward of Northfield, Mass., is home for a visit.

C. C. King is putting in the foundation for a round barn.

J. T. Stevens has repaired his barn, Lyman Barber and E. R. Cook doing the work.

The Orleans Association of Congregational ministers met with Rev. A. May 15.

R. G. Stiles has finished work at Creamery where he had a position for a while.

The school in the Anderson, disclosed at present on account of the teacher's family.

The Ladies' Home Missionary held their annual thank offering in the church May 11.

One of our most promising young men passed away last Saturday in the d-

Frank Beach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Beach. For some years he had had disease, but was gradually over-this when about a year ago other things came on and since that time he had failing health, though he had been at some work until recently. Mr. Beach was a young man of upright habits, industrious and genial, a real home who looked well after all interests pertaining to the farm. He was born on the 25th day of June, 1881 and had always been in this town. His young man having many friends and classes of people and will be sadly missed by his friends. He leaves his parents, his sister, Mrs. George Merriam, and other relatives and friends to mourn his loss. The funeral was held today at 1 o'clock at the house, Rev. A. B. Russell officiating. The remains were later

West Glover.

GREENSBORO.

Mrs. M. Holder is with her daughter, Mrs. Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson were in St. Johnsbury Thursday.

Mary Smith has been at home week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kinney are at cottage at the lake.

Rev. John Hood spent a few days week with his son in Troy.

George Rogers has moved into the chie & Ufford boarding house.

Albert Hutton is gathering cream drawing milk for the Caspian Lake ery.

Lewis Sulham has moved from Henry Benjamin house to the lower ment in Mrs. Simon's house.

The ladies appear to take the fishing this season. Miss Kellogg brought a fine string of trout Tuesday.

George Dow of Glover has put in New England telephone for Henry jamin, Rev. R. J. Barton, L. S. Collins, H. A. Slayton cottage.

The remains of Mrs. Luke Eastman, died at the home of her son, E. E. Smith at Campton, N. H., were brought to village cemetery for interment a week Friday.

GREENSBORO BEND.

Mrs. William Graham is quite sick.

N. A. Ross was in Burlington Friday.

Mrs. Aggie King is working in Wall

Mrs. Sadie Piper has gone to Water-to work.

Mrs. Emma Jenks has been among sick ones.

Rosa Tucker and son are visiting Charles Davison's.

J. H. Pope has purchased a fine piano his daughter Hazel.

Ada Duby of Hardwick is visiting sister, Mrs. George Anair.

Mrs. C. O. Davison and Mrs. Will C. ham are recovering health.

Wallace Thomas has moved into the tement vacated by Mr. Barr.

Mrs. Amelia Amnden and Mrs. P. Cole were in Walden Friday.

R. J. Shurtleff and Asa Chase are improving their buildings by painting.

Mrs. Clayton Daniels and family have returned to their home in St. Johnsbury.

The listers have completed the grand list and it is $226 larger than last year.

There will be a promenade and dance Salmon's hall May 31st. Stone's orches will furnish music.

Willard Rodgers and Florence Per were married at Lyndon the first of week and are stopping at Gilbert Rodgers.

Mrs. Joel Christie from Glover was called Friday to her mother's, Mrs. Sophia Smith. Her sister, Mrs. Burrington, not being well.

The Memorial sermon will be given the M. E. church May 27th. Decorative day will be observed by the A. E. Burns Post and W. R. C. Services at the cemetery in Stannard at 10 o'clock; basket dinner in the W. R. C. hall at 12; address the M. E. church at 1:30; by Rev. Samuel Lewis of Hardwick. Soldiers and the families are especially invited.

CASWELL'S MILL.

Mrs. A. B. Moulton is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ames have returned from Maine.

George Moulton is working for Irving Welch in Derby.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cole from Woodbury are visiting relatives in this place.

Fred Davis and A. J. Applebee have the Bell telephone installed in their homes.

Mrs. George Webber, while out riding jumped from the wagon and broke one bone in her ankle.

IRASBURG.

George Phillips is quite ill.

Three of Mr. Dwyer's children are ill with the measles.

Clarence Sanville is recovering from his severe illness with pneumonia.

Rev. Josiah Poston attended the preachers' meeting at West Glover last Tuesday.

The village was favored with an open air concert from the band last Saturday evening.

Dr. Reynolds of Boston was recently in town and visited at the home of E. P. Church.

Henry Goss will build a new barn this summer. The work will be in charge of E. H. Colton.

Rev. G. H. Wright went to Bradford last Tuesday to attend the funeral of Rev. J. O. Sherburne.